COURSE DESCRIPTION

Dance 17AB will include Intermediate level elements from the Horton and Limon Modern Dance techniques vocabulary and concepts. Students will learn dance anatomy, terminology, alignment, strength and flexibility as well as an awareness of the dancers body through improvisation and structured choreography.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Evaluate movement skills in terms of space, time, and force, and reproduce accurately through their own body.
2. Analyze a dance performance in terms of choreography, performance, and theatrical elements.
3. Demonstrate clarity of intent while applying kinesthetic principles for all dance elements.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE

Disrespectful interruptions (talking, sitting down, stopping in the middle of a traveling combination, disrupting the pace of the class or leaving class without permission) are rude and insulting to the art form. Students must take classes in their entirety or ask for permission to be excused from the Dance studio. All cell phones and pagers must be silenced during class. No food or chewing gum is allowed in the Dance studio and capped bottled water is the only beverage allowed in the studio. Proper hygiene is highly recommended and appropriate clothing is suggested when traveling to and from the Q building for safety purposes.

DRESS CODE

Male and female hair should be neatly pinned and secured away from the face and off the dancers neck. Hair must be neatly in a bun or a French twist; no pony tails. Solid colored leotards, leggings, form fitting yoga pants and fitted shirts are appropriate. Fitted sweaters and leg warmers are permitted in colder climates. Dancers must dance in bare feet, paws or foot tape. Small stud earrings are permitted. To avoid injury no dangling or noisy earrings, bracelets, anklets, necklaces or watches are to be worn in class. *For course assignments, students should bring a 8.5x11 notebook and a pen to each class *

To stay properly hydrated, bottled water is mandatory to participate in class

ATTENDANCE

Students who miss any classes in the first three (3) weeks of classes will be dropped from the course. Students who miss any four (4) consecutive classes at any time in the semester will be dropped from the course. (5) Five points are given per class for attendance and participation in the entire class session. Latecomers are distracting, risk injury and will result in (2) two points being deducted for being tardy. Participation will not be allowed if a student is more than (10) ten minutes late and written notes must be submitted at the end of the class session. Do not schedule appointments during class or ask to leave early. For group choreography, be sure to notify your fellow classmates of your absence (24) twenty-four hours prior to the class session. Students who watch the class due to illness or injury will lose partial credit (3 points) for non-participation and (2 points) for tardiness, (3) three points for non-participation. Only (4) four absences are allowed to be made-up by attending ONLY another DANCE Class at LBCC and submitting a written note from the Dance instructor verifying the make-up. If you become ill, injured or unable to participate in class for an extended period of time you must provide a doctor's note to verify the problem within (48) forty-eight hours of the missed class. Failure to do so will result in no credit for the missed class(es). No children, non enrolled guests or animals are allowed during the class sessions.

PLEASE NOTE: It is often necessary for the instructor to place his/her hands on a student in order to better facilitate the learning process and to illustrate proper alignment. If a student should have an aversion to this practice please notify Ms. Powell prior to the start of classes.

THERE IS NO EXTRA CREDIT IN THIS COURSE. STUDENTS WILL RECEIVE THE GRADE THAT THEY EARN!!

This class may be taken for credit/no credit. To receive credit you must earn at least 250 points.

All exams are required. Go to the admissions office to fill out the appropriate form by the 6th week of classes.

COURSE DOCUMENTS All course documents and syllabi can be found on the Theatre, Dance and Film department website at <http://www.lbcc.edu/tdf/DanceStaff.cfm> in case they are lost, stolen or destroyed. No late, emailed or faxed course assignments are accepted.

ELECTRONIC DEVICE POLICY Students are expected to silence all electronic devices (cell phones, watches, beepers, ipods, palm pilots, PDA's) and similar devices that disrupt the class or Professor Powell. (10) ten push up's per ring are required by the entire class if a device goes off. Students may be dismissed from class if repeated disruptions occur.

INCLEMENT WEATHER OR NATURAL DISASTERS In case of inclement weather (rain, heat, fires, floods, earthquakes, poor air quality) be sure that your LBCC Peoplesoft email address is working properly and check for email instructions from Professor Powell or the college.

INJURIES / EMERGENCIES

In any physical activity, injury is always a possibility. A healthy diet, substantial water intake, a positive outlook and adequate rest will minimize risk. Slow stretching before and after class minimizes soreness and increases flexibility. IN CASE OF INJURY notify Professor Powell immediately, see a nurse and/or call the Student Health Center at (562) 938-4210.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

"It is our goal to establish an academic environment in which inquiry is nurtured, individual responsibility is rewarded and academic dishonesty, cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated. It is our goal to establish an academic environment in which inquiry is nurtured, individual responsibility is rewarded and academic dishonesty, cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated. Lack of honesty in the classroom is considered a very serious offense. Any form of cheating on tests, turning in of work which is not one's own (plagiarism), talking during tests, furnishing false information to instructors or knowingly misrepresenting one-self to the college is grounds for disciplinary action. The consequences of cheating are severe and may include the possibility of expulsion. Disciplinary action can include the following: warnings, reprimands, probation, suspensions, expulsion, restitution, and loss of financial aid."

In essay form, choose only five (5) of the pieces in the Dance concert that have affected you the most.

It is required that the first and last pieces of the concert be included in the five (5) pieces chosen.

The paper should be written as if the reader has not seen the concert and should include an introduction, dance analysis and a strong conclusion.

When writing about a piece of choreography, include the following:

Italicize the Title of the Piece, name the Choreographer and any outstanding performer

1. Discuss the choreographer's intent or theme of the piece (narrative/abstract)
2. Discuss the technique or movement style used in the piece (ballet, jazz, modern)
3. Discuss the genre of music and the relationship it had to the choreography
4. Explain how the costumes were appropriate to the piece (color, texture, design)
5. Comment on the lighting, sets, or props if applicable
6. Describe the use of stage space, floor patterns, exits & entrances
7. Discuss the high point (climax) of the piece. Did it work? How did resolve?
8. Comment on the dancers' performance and execution of the movement
9. Your conclusion should tie all of your thoughts together and may include suggestions for improvement or give praise as appropriate

Attention Dance 41 Choreographers and Performers: Due on the date of the 2nd Showing at 1pm

Dancers who perform or choreograph in the LBCC Dance concert may NOT critique the LBCC Dance Concert. Students must critique another college or professional dance concert to complete the assignment. Performing or choreographing students may submit this paper on or before THE 2nd SHOWING date in this technique class. No late papers or emails will be accepted. No excuses, no phone calls, no emails. Read the syllabus!!!
